We collect and use this Personal Data for the purposes described in the section 'How and why we use your Personal Data' below.

5 LOCATION SERVICES/DATA

The Services will request your consent to use location services to precisely identify your location each session (i.e. each time the Services is opened or has been placed in the background for more than 30 seconds). We require access to that data in order to arrange delivery for pharmacy goods and/or prescription medications.

If you do not provide your consent, you cannot use the Services..

The location services in the Services will not operate unless location services/data are generally enabled on your device. You may disable such functionality at any time by turning your device's location on "off" using the device's settings app. When you allow your device to use location services/data, data will also be collected by Google in accordance with their Privacy Policy, as this is the map service we integrate to our app.

We exert no control over Google's Privacy Policy and we therefore recommend that you consult their privacy policy for further information on how Google protect personal data please visit their site - <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=en-US>. For more information see the section 'Who we share your personal data with' below.

6 HOW YOUR PERSONAL DATA IS COLLECTED

We collect personal data from you directly when you sign up to the Services, contact us directly or reach out to us via social media, make submissions via the Services when a forum element is available, or indirectly, such as your activity while using the Services.

At this point in time, we do not collect any personal information about you using cookies or similar technologies. In the event that this were to change and if we were to decide to collect personal data about you using cookies, you would be notified of this change by means of in-app notification, with detailed information regarding our use of cookies and similar technologies to be made available in the relevant cookies policy.

7 HOW AND WHY WE USE YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Under data protection law, we can only use your personal data if we have a proper reason, e.g.:

- (i) where you have given consent
- (ii) to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations
- (iii) for the performance of a contract with you or to take steps at your request before entering into a contract, or

(iv) for our legitimate interests or those of a third party

A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information, so long as this is not overridden by your own rights and interests. We will carry out an assessment when relying on legitimate interests, to balance our interests against your own. You can obtain details of this assessment by contacting us (see 'How to contact us' below).

The table below explains what we use your personal data for and why.

MARKETING

We intend to send you email marketing to inform you of our services such as promotions.

We will always ask you for your consent before doing sending you marketing communications, except where you have explicitly opted-in to receiving email marketing from us in the past or except where you were given the option to opt-out of email marketing when you initially signed up for your account with us and you did not do so.

You will have the right to opt out of receiving marketing communications at any time by:

- contacting us at contact@pickupmymeds.co.uk
- using the 'unsubscribe' link included in all marketing emails you may received from us

We will always treat your personal data with the utmost respect and never sell or share it with other organisations for marketing purposes.

For more information on your right to object at any time to your personal data being used for marketing purposes, see 'Your rights' below.

9 WHO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL DATA WITH

We routinely share personal data with service providers we use to help us run our business or provide the services or functionalities in the Services, including developers, cloud storage providers and Google, Inc. for Google Maps location functionality. We exert no control over Google's Privacy Policy and we therefore recommend that you consult their privacy policy for further information on how Google protect personal data - <https://policies.google.com/privacy?hl=en-US>

We only allow service providers to handle your personal data if we are satisfied they take appropriate measures to protect your personal data. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers to ensure they can only use your personal data to provide services to us and to you.

We or the third parties mentioned above may occasionally also need to share your personal data with:

- external auditors, e.g. in relation to the audit of our accounts and our company —the recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations
- professional advisors (such as lawyers and other advisors)—the recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations
- law enforcement agencies, courts or tribunals and regulatory bodies to comply with legal and regulatory obligations
- other parties in connection with a significant corporate transaction or restructuring, including a merger, acquisition, asset sale, initial public offering or in the event of our insolvency—usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible, however, the recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations

If you would like more information about who we share our data with and why, please contact us (see 'How to contact us' below).

We will not share your personal data with any other third party.

10 HOW LONG YOUR PERSONAL DATA WILL BE KEPT

We will keep your personal data for as long as you have an active account with us and for a period of up to 6 years thereafter to comply with any accounting or legal obligations including in the event of the pursuit or defence of legal claims. Once you have closed your account with us, we will move your personal data to a separate database so that only key stakeholders in our business on a 'need to know basis' have access to such data.

Following the end of the of the aforementioned retention period, we will delete or anonymise your personal data.

11 TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL DATA OUT OF THE UK

We may transfer your personal data outside the United Kingdom (UK) and European Economic Area (EEA). Where we transfer your personal data outside of the UK and the EEA, we will only do so for the purposes mentioned in this Policy and any contract that we have entered into with you or the entity that you are representing.

Countries outside of the UK and the EEA do not have the same data protection laws as the UK and EEA. Therefore, when making such a transfer of data, we will always rely on a safeguard mechanism under the UK GDPR and/or the EU GDPR. We will only transfer your personal data to a country which the European Commission or the UK authorities have given a formal adequacy decision/regulation that confirms this third-country provides an adequate level of data protection similar to those which apply in the UK and EEA. If the third-country does not have an adequacy decision awarded to it, any transfer of your personal information will be subject to entering into the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses (the SCCs) which are designed to help safeguard your privacy rights and give you remedies in the unlikely event of a misuse of your personal data.

Transfers of personal data from the UK to the EEA shall be done on the basis of the adequacy regulation awarded to the European Union by the UK pursuant to the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union which was granted in June 2021.

If you would like further information please contact us using the details provided at the start of this Policy. We will not otherwise transfer your personal data outside of the UK and the EEA or to any organisation (or subordinate bodies) governed by public international law or which is set up under any agreement between two or more countries.

Restriction of use	The right to require us to restrict use of your personal data in certain circumstances, e.g. if you contest the accuracy of the data.
Data portability	The right to receive the personal data you provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and/or transmit that data to a third party—in certain situations.
To object to use	The right to object: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • at any time to your personal data being used for direct marketing (including profiling) • in certain other situations to our continued use of your personal data, e.g. where we use your personal data for our legitimate interests.
Not to be subject to decisions without human involvement	The right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling) that produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affects you We do not make any such decisions based on data collected by the Services.

For further information on each of those rights, including the circumstances in which they do and do not apply, please contact us (see 'How to contact us' below). You may also find it helpful to refer to the guidance from the UK's Information Commissioner on your rights under the UK GDPR.

If you would like to exercise any of those rights, please complete a request form—available on our website at [insert link] or email , call or write to us—see below: 'How to contact us'. When contacting us please:

- provide enough information to identify yourself (e.g., your full name and username) and any additional identity information we may reasonably request from you, and
- let us know which right(s) you want to exercise and the information to which your request relates

13 KEEPING YOUR PERSONAL DATA SECURE

We have appropriate security measures to prevent personal data from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed unlawfully. We limit access to your personal data to those who have a genuine business need to access it.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

If you want detailed information from Get Safe Online on how to protect your information and your computers and devices against fraud, identity theft, viruses and many other online problems, please visit www.getsafeonline.org. Get Safe Online is supported by HM Government and leading businesses.

14 HOW TO COMPLAIN

Please contact us if you have any queries or concerns about our use of your information (see below 'How to contact us'). We hope we will be able to resolve any issues you may have.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint> or telephone: 0303 123 1113.

15 CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

We may change this privacy policy from time to time. When we make significant changes we will take steps to inform you, for example via the Services or by other means, such as email.

16 HOW TO CONTACT US

You can contact us by post, email or telephone if you have any questions about this privacy policy or the information we hold about you, to exercise a right under data protection law or to make a complaint.
